Summary of reasons for decision:

The image file is deemed objectionable because it promotes and supports the exploitation of children for sexual purposes. It is a highly sexualised image of a naked child. There is no alternate reading other than it is intended for the sexual arousal of persons with a sexual predilection towards children. It creates and encourages the notion that children are legitimate subjects for adult sexual arousal. The objectionable classification limits the right to freedom of expression provided by the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990, but is consistent with parliament's intention that publications promoting and the supporting the sexual exploitation of children be banned. It also reflects the concern of a free and democratic society to protect children from exploitation and harm.
